A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

Issue 46, January 2020

The President's Piece

By John Keenan

The burglaries remain an ongoing problem. Having been broken into, I am enormously sympathetic to those who have experienced this unpleasantness.

What is the solution? You may well ask. In reality there is no immediate solution. It is incumbent on us all to be acutely aware in securing our property as best we can, and to be vigilant. The police are working hard, (you have the phone numbers), but unfortunately it is a tide that has overcome Cyprus (some will remember similar in Spain, years ago on entering the EU). However, rest assured that your committee have been active.

After meeting with Leptos - patrols have been amended and a closer relationship established. The police are patrolling the area in 'civvies' and unmarked cars.

On the domestic front:

You will all have noticed the application to our roads by Tala council and Leptos.

The methodical dismantling of the slipping building.

The rubbish collections.

The erection of the much sought after mirror opposite the junction on to Mary Leptos street.

Where to dump your worn out sofas, and BBQ's.

Etc. etc.

Your committee have recovered from the very pleasant Kamares Christmas party on December 12th, which I hope you all enjoyed. I thought it was very successful. Thanks to Minni, her team, and of course Marinos and his staff.

Politics aside, we hope you all had a very pleasant Christmas, and have embarked on the New Year with fortitude, stamina, optimism and eager anticipation of another year of retirement or work. Full of what we all richly and most earnestly desire.

Off the Beaten Track – Mosques

There are almost 100 mosques in Cyprus. Many of the Orthodox churches were converted into Muslim places of worship and mosques. These devotional spaces exist throughout Cyprus with their tall minarets. Some even still have rugs inside. Further information on
